

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

'Andrew's Christmas' Begins With a Dream

What a special Christmas is in store for 6-year-old Andrew! This very imaginative and special children's book is destined to become a holiday classic.

Andrew's Christmas begins when the little boy falls asleep on the couch on Christmas Eve while thinking about the meaning of the holiday season. Andrew dreams of many special things, including a fantastic journey that has him climbing the Christmas tree! Starting at the bottom, Andrew makes his way higher and higher. On his climb, the tree decorations and ornaments help him on his trek to the very top, where he discovers what Christmas is really all about.

Join a special little boy on the most special day of the year, a time when all things are possible!
