FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THINK ABOUT IT: A WRITE AND REFLECT BOOK, SERIES 2

Building on his highly entertaining and educational short story collection for kids, author Brian A. Brown is back with his second installment. Think About It: A Write and Reflect Book, Series 2 uses cartoons to illustrate riveting stories about kids facing tough, embarrassing, or even dangerous situations that children everywhere can relate to. Whether kids in the classroom are being pressured or bullied by other students to make a negative choice, have the urge to disobey their parents, or feel as if nobody understands them, all young adults and children can learn to make the right decisions through each character's story in this engaging and practical book.

Brian A. Brown is a full-time writer and student who lives outside of Detroit, Michigan. During his spare time, he enjoys playing sports, singing, music, writing, and film-making. His plans are to continue writing, and begin public speaking as a way to help young people in society learn that they have the power to rise above negative situations and make wise choices. He is currently working on the third book in the Think About It Series, which addresses many youth-oriented problems and challenges.
