Romance Comes to a Woman Answering a Higher Calling

This inspiring story of love, loss, and rebuilding shows just how strong the human spirit can be.

Lily Stone is a young woman running a ranch in Missouri for domestic abuse survivors. She took over the job after her mother's death. Lily struggles with her enormous responsibilities at the ranch, ignoring her own emotional needs so she can help these women who have suffered so much. Her one escape is bartending every Friday at a biker bar, where she can pour drinks, enjoy loud music, and flirt with the customers.

One night at the bar, she meets a handsome stranger and feels a strong attraction to him. Brett Miller works incredibly hard to get Lily to trust him, and to prove that not all men are bad and abuse their women.

Will Lily continue to play her lonesome game of life, keeping her heart closed off to everyone except the women she helps? Or could her relationship with Brett make her lose everything she's worked so hard to accomplish? Can she have it all?

Heart of a Stone is a about story of survivors. In life and in love.
