

PRESS RELEASE

Culture and Beauty Abound in this Scenic Book about Haiti

A Visit to My Homeland: Haiti offers an easily read, educational and historical tour of the Caribbean island of Haiti. After visiting her homeland in 2007, the author returned with colorful photographs of her people and the panoramic view of Haiti's blue waters and high mountains. The aim for the author was to write a synopsis about the history and culture of Haiti in a way that can be understood by young readers. The writer's three sons became her source of inspiration for writing the book to teach them about their mother's cultural background and keeping the Haitian History alive in the family.

The book is now available in English, French and Spanish. 50% of all proceeds go towards constructing a Summer Camp for the young victims of the 2010 earthquake in Haiti.
