When Is Everything ‘Just Right?’ The Answer Is Blown in the Wind

Children’s Book Teaches the Concept of Seasons

We all wish for moments when things are “just right.” But when those perfect times come, will we take the time to enjoy them, or do we always move on too quickly?

Mazz-Mazz-razz-ma-tazz, the Northwest wind, loves to blow cold winds. When people want a warmer spring wind, Sara-Tara-Clara-Farah, the Southwest wind, hears the people’s wishes and blows a soft warm breeze. The Northwest and Southwest winds combine to create a “just right” moment for everyone to enjoy. And that’s how the weather can turn Just Right!

This delightful children’s book is all about finding that Just Right moment.

JUST RIGHT* (ISBN: 978-1-62857-212-4) is now available for $11.50 and can be ordered through the publisher’s website:

About the Author: Old Nana grew up in a household filled with the love and the laughter of children, and it is from children that she receives the inspiration for writing. “Their creativity and curiosity expand my creativity and curiosity.” Why is she called Old Nana? Because she has lived long enough to confirm the existence of the ordinary and extraordinary magic of life. Old Nana lives in the Midwest on a lake, where she shapes her wonderful stories. This is Old Nana’s fourth book.
