

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Has ‘The Homework Goblin’ Ever Stolen Your Homework?

Best excuse ever for why your homework isn’t done: It was stolen by The Homework Goblin!

If your children can come up with a myriad of reasons why their homework isn’t done, here’s a new one “for the book!” In this fun children’s story, Jason has completed his homework for the first time. It sits safely on his desk, all ready to hand in the next morning. His older sister warns him not to leave it out because The Homework Goblin could steal it! But Jason doesn’t believe her until he actually sees the goblin steal into his room and swipe his paper. The goblin disappears out the window grasping Jason’s hard work. If you’ve ever lost your homework, maybe you’ve had a visit from The Homework Goblin!

Meanwhile, Jason isn’t about to give up. He runs after the goblin and the chase is on! Will Jason get his homework back?

About the Author: Ashley Howland lives in Adelaide, South Australia, with her husband Ross, two daughters, Maddy and Aijay, and her two spoiled Labradors, Obi and Stitch. Her girls inspire her every day to write children’s books and the dogs often provide the material. The Homework Goblin is her third book. The others are Ghostnapped and Obi the Super Puppy and the Mystery of the Red Mist. She was motivated to write this story because, “I love hearing excuses for not doing homework!” The author works for Labs ‘n Life, where at-risk youth train Labradors as companion dogs for children with autism.
