

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Spy-Fi Tale of Suspense and Redemption
Vows 9/11 Will Never Happen Again

The reviewers are unanimous....Bob Nesoff's "Spyder Hole" is a hit.

About Spyder Hole:

Former U.S. Army Green Beret Dan Halevi, now an Israeli Mossad officer, could have stopped the attack on 9/11, but he never connected the dots. Now he has a chance to redeem himself. Intelligence reports indicate that terrorists are ready to set off nuclear devices in New York and London. This time he won't let it happen.

What they are saying:

"Bob Nesoff is a gifted and experienced writer who knows his subject. His knowledge of tactics and techniques is phenomenal. The story held my attention and had me waiting for the next chapter to learn what the Mossad, CIA and MI-6 operatives were up to in their quest to block an international terror plot. It was reminiscent of actual incidents hidden under a cloak of "Eyes Only" material.

"Bob Nesoff knows his subject and keeps the pace moving like an Indiana Jones movie. In fact, if Hollywood is smart, this will be made into a movie."

Thomas H. Needham, Maj. Gen. (Ret.), U.S. Army

"Spyder Hole grabs and holds you from the first page. It pulls you into a dangerous and treacherous world of black ops and political intrigue. This is good old-fashioned suspense with heart-stopping twists, and should be a Hollywood movie by Paul Greengrass (Bourne) or Ridley Scott."

Juan Gómez-Jurad
international best selling author of
The Moses Expedition and Contract with God

"...Dan Halevi, an Israeli Mossad agent is haunted by the knowledge that although he had the information, he was unable to figure out what was going to happen in New York City until it was too late. He is committed to not allowing that to ever happen again on his watch. On his team, as his top aide, is Hesh Whitman, the lone survivor from the beach massacre at Eliat. Hesh is blinded by a need for revenge after watching the murder of his bride on the beach. His rage may prove to be a distraction and ultimately a stumbling block in this new race against time.

"Readers will find themselves holding their breath throughout the story's twists and turns, only to let it out and have to hold it again in anticipation. Rife with action, danger and nearly depleted countdowns, Spyder Hole is one book lovers of military thrillers will not want to miss."

Kristin Pace, The Book Trotter

“Mr. Nesoff has written an entertaining and thought-provoking thriller. This book offers yet a different take on how to combat terrorism: employ special forces and international collaboration. This is a very entertaining novel. I’m sure the reader will be looking forward to Mr. Nesoff’s sequel, Shaheed. I know I will.”

Steven Moore, Book Pleasures

Bob Nesoff is an award-winning journalist and former reporter for two major daily newspapers. Bob served as a staff sergeant in the 11th Special Forces Group, a Green Beret unit before becoming a journalist. He was a magazine editor and writer in New York and when he isn’t writing spell-binding action novels, he and his wife Sandy, specialize in travel writing.
