The Intriguing Story of Six Diverse Lives

How do we navigate our path in life? What factors of circumstance and fate shape who we are? How do we cope with the mistakes we make?

Sin and Contrition follows the lives of six teenagers, classmates from different backgrounds, from the age of thirteen to sixty-two. This captivating novel charts the varied journey of three boys, Gary, LaMarr, and Gene; and three girls, Ellen, Bettina, and Josie, as they make life-changing decisions, sometimes casually, at other times carefully. Transgressions are set a backdrop of religious and secular moral debate.
