New Suspense Novel Warns: Beware of Lethal Scorpion!

The perfect recipe for suspense: Combine one resourceful drug enforcer, a huge heroin deal, and a drug buyer named The Scorpion, and you have the scorching hot novel The Iranian Scorpion.

Robert Dawson, an agent of the Drug Enforcement Agency, is sent to Afghanistan to stop the flow of heroin. With the help of Kate Conway, a freelance journalist, and a shadowy Taliban leader, Robert disguises himself as an opium field hand to get first-hand knowledge of Afghanistan's biggest crop. After learning the secrets of the Afghan drug trade, he illegally enters Iran to catch the buyer, a powerful provincial governor known as The Scorpion. After the shipment is traced to New York City and a bust is made, The Scorpion orders Robert captured and executed.

Robert's father, a former U.S. Army general, is in Tehran on assignment with the International Atomic Energy Agency investigating Iran's use of nuclear energy. He vows to assassinate The Scorpion after hearing of his son's reported execution. Travel along to this forbidden part of the world, as intrigue and suspense dominate this fascinating story.
